

Na-ha-shnee

16th Annual Native American Health Science Institute
June 20 – July 1, 2011

Native American Health Sciences Program
Washington State University
Pullman and Spokane campuses

- Purpose: To encourage Native American HIGH SCHOOL students to pursue Health Science degrees and to prepare themselves for their future.
- Participation: Invited Native American male and female students who will be entering the 10th, 11th or 12th grade in fall 2011. Taking only students who live in the states of Washington, Idaho, or Oregon or unless your tribes or family pays transportation.
- Cost: Free: Must have a "C" average in math/sciences and a strong interest in the health careers

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATION: MONDAY MAY 2, 2011

CONTACT:

Robbie Paul, PhD
Director, Native American Health Sciences
paul@wsu.edu

PO BOX 1495
Spokane, WA 99210-1495
WK: 509-324-7440
FAX: 509-324-7341
Google: Na-ha-shnee

APPLICATION ON LINE www.nursing.wsu.edu