

Academic Milestones

“Every student, Every Classroom, Everyday.”

Native American Community Conversation with Superintendent Nyalnd

Tuesday, December 16, 2014

Location: Duwamish Long House

6:00-8:00PM

Agenda	Notes
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• 6:00-6:10 PM Welcoming Song and Prayer• 6:10-6:20PM protocol honoring the Duwamish people. We will present a gift to Cecile Hanson current Chief of the Duwamish tribe and a direct descendant of Chief Seattle.• 6:20-6:30PM Superintendent's vision for the District and Native American Education• 6:30-6:40PM Native American Education Staff introduction and program update (Gail and Team will present an abridged version of their Board update)• 6:40-7:25PM Conversation with families about Native American Education (families of SPS children)• 7:25-7:50PM Community Based Organization presentations (3-5minutes presentations about their work and how they are supporting our SPS Native Students and their families)• 7:55-8:00PM Superintendent Closing
My Responsibilities	Questions

“In a culture of discipline, people do not have jobs, they have responsibilities.”
Good to Great and the Social Sectors, Collins, 2005